MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Mr. Roger Jones, Assistant Director, Bureau of the Budget, re the Daniels/McGee Bill

1. This morning I called Mr. Jones to remind him of the Agency's interest in expediting the passage of legislation providing for our own retirement system benefits paralleling those contained in the Daniels/McGee bill now on the President's desk. I asked Mr. Jones if he had any views on the President's signing the Daniels/McGee bill. He said he could not speak officially but personally thought the chances of signature were good.

2. I recalled an earlier conversation Mr. Houston and I had with Mr. Jones in which we had discussed the possibility of obtaining for the Agency administrative authority to adopt for the Agency system any liberalizing provisions from Civil Service legislation. I said we had explored this with our Subcommittee staffs on the Hill but the reaction appeared negative and we would probably have to go the route of Agency legislation paralleling the Daniels/McGee bill.

3. I asked Mr. Jones what the State Department was doing in this connection. He noted that Representative Wayne Hays had introduced legislation liberalizing State Department retirement benefits, but this was a sort of "bobtail" affair which did not contain all the benefits of the Daniels/McGee bill, and therefore State would now probably seek a new bill which covered all of the Daniels/McGee points.

4. I told Mr. Jones we would send over our legislative proposal promptly if and when the President signs the Daniels/McGee bill, and would appreciate his assistance in the matter. He said he would be glad to be helpful, but we should deal primarily with Wilfred Rommel, Legislative Reference, who would be "set up to take prompt action." Mr. Jones said that BOB had notified the President, in forwarding to him the Enrolled Daniels/McGee Bill, that CIA, Foreign Service and possibly the military will want something comparable.

5. I told Mr. Jones of our negotiations with Senator Ervin regarding his bill on the rights of privacy of Federal employees, remarking that there had been no action by the Subcommittee on this matter for a month or more. Mr. Jones said he had heard nothing on the subject and hoped maybe the matter had died down.
